DINING

During your exploration and adventure in Morro Bay you'll need to refuel. Lucky for you we have a variety of waterfront restaurants, downtown & neighborhood eateries, cafes and sweets shops.

As a destination centered on commercial fishing, allow us to make one recommendation: seafood. Fresh as it comes, right from the docks. Morro Bay offers locally farmed oysters, along with crab, salmon, ling cod, and so much more.

MUST TRIES WHEN YOU'RE IN MORRO BAY:

1.) Morro Bay Oysters –

The freshest taste of the ocean. A unique flavor influenced by the waters that flow in and out of Morro Bay.

2.) Morro Bay Avocados –

Did you know Morro Bay has its own variety of Avocado?

3.) Salt Water Taffy –

No trip to the beach is complete without salt water taffy.

BEACHES

Did you know Morro Bay has over 6 miles of beaches? Here are the top 5 Morro Bay beaches to visit during your stay:

1.) MORRO BEACH

This is the perfect place to spend a full day playing, shelling, surfing, or relaxing next to Morro Rock.

Local Tip – Stay for sunset. Watch as Morro Rock comes alive with color, utilize one of the public fire pits and stargaze to the sound of the waves.

2.) MORRO STRAND STATE BEACH

Two miles north of Morro Rock is a sandy paradise where you can explore the dunes to the sounds of the ocean.

3.) SANDSPIT

Paddleboard, kayak, canoe, or boat over to the most secluded of our beaches – only accessible by water.

4.) TORO CREEK BEACH

With plenty of room to let your furry friend run, this is the ideal dog beach.

5.) MORRO BAY STATE PARK BEACH

A rustic, unspoiled and natural spot calling for exploration and wildlife viewing.

VISIT RESPONSIBLY

Morro Bay is a nature lover's paradise. When you visit, we invite you to enjoy our natural assets, but also to join in our efforts to protect them.

ABOUT THE MORRO BAY NATIONAL ESTUARY:

Tucked away in the southern coast of Morro Bay lies the Morro Bay estuary. Salt and fresh water combine to create an exceptional habitat for hundreds of animals and plants, as well as a unique environment for water adventure.

HOW CAN YOU HELP:

- 1.) Make sure your trash goes into the bin.
- 2.) Choose reusable items whenever you can.
- 3.) Conserve water.
- 4.) Pick up after your pet – you can find free dog waste bags around town.
- 5.) Watch wildlife from a distance so as not to disturb them.

Visit the National Estuary Nature Center at 601 Embarcadero, where you can experience the beauty of the estuary and learn about protecting its sensitive habitats and wildlife. Admission to the Estuary Nature Center is free.

EXPLORE DOWNTOWN

Just two blocks off the water, is our walkable downtown full of original boutiques, artisan galleries and casual dining options. Here you will find Morro Bay crafted goods, morning coffee, films playing at the historic Bay Theater, the perfect book for the beach, shows at our intimate concert venue and much more.

Visit morrobay.org for more information.

HISTORY OF MORRO ROCK

Morro Rock isn't simply a rock. It's the size of an island, and that's due to the way it naturally formed over millennia. Today, it's a prime tourist attraction near San Luis Obispo and the central California coast. This 581-foot volcanic plug sits in the waters of Morro Bay. Morro Rock is accessible via a small causeway that connects it to the mainland.

The rock's history goes back 23 million years, when the volcano became dormant. Between 6500 and 2000 B.C., the residents of the area at that time, the Salinan and Chumash tribes, considered Morro Rock a sacred site and would climb the rock twice each year to celebrate the solstice.

Material from the rock was mined in the 19th and 20th centuries. Most of it was used to establish a breakwater in Morro Bay and fortify Port San Luis Harbor. In 1968, after being transferred to the state, Morro Rock was officially designated a California historical landmark.

Visitors to Morro Rock aren't allowed to climb on its surface. This is due to a combination of tribal rules and state laws. Nevertheless, the area still offers a variety of recreational activities. The beach itself is a wide swath of sand and rocky outcroppings. Due to Morro Rock's structure and location, the ocean around it is rough, which makes it perfect for surfers. The beaches in the area also contain high sand dunes.

The protected dunes surrounding Morro Rock are home to the nesting areas of snowy plover birds, allowing them to lay eggs and raise their chicks. It's the main reason dogs aren't allowed on Morro Rock Beach without leashes. The area is also a reserve for the endangered peregrine falcon. Among the regular sea animals to visit Morro Rock are sea lions and sea otters. All the fauna on and around Morro Rock is protected by the state of California.

EVENT RESOURCES

Whether it is a beach wedding, family reunion, birthday party, ocean burial at sea, memorial service, business meeting or other special event, outdoor or indoors, Morro Bay has the facilities to accommodate.

A permit will be needed for any event you would like to have at the beach, park, or indoor City facility. You can get more information on outdoor spaces and facilities available, fees and how to book at www.morrobayca.gov or recinfo@morrobayca.gov or call 805-772-6278.

Local equipment rental companies, catering, and other vendors are also available.

The Garden Chapel at Coalesce Book store is a lovely place for charming and intimate ceremonies.
www.coalescebookstore.com

For an all-inclusive wedding ceremony and reception venue, whether indoors or out, the Inn at Morro Bay has what you need.
www.innatmorrobay.com/meetings-events

The Inn at Morro Bay is also a great place to host a business meeting, retreat, or reception of any kind as well. www.innatmorrobay.com/meetings-events

The Hampton Inn also has meeting rooms.
www.hilton.com/en/hotels/sbpayhx-hampton-morro-bay/

An ocean burial at sea can be arranged through www.ashesonthesea.com/morro-bay www.morrobaywhalewatching.com and www.slodivers.com/burial-at-sea/

It is illegal to scatter ashes without the correct permit.

For further assistance with planning your event. Please contact us at info@morrobay.org or call 805-225-7411 Ext. 2.

Tie the Knot in Front of the Rock.

The quiet and charming town of Morro Bay is the perfect backdrop for a casual beach wedding.

Let us help make planning your affordable oceanfront ceremony easy by visiting morrobay.org for more information.
